Article XI - Amendments

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Chariho Youth Soccer Association (hereafter referred to as CYSA and/or the Association).

ARTICLE II PURPOSE

The purpose of this association is to promote, administer, foster, and perpetuate the game of soccer for boys and girls registered with CYSA. The Association shall exercise complete governmental control of said game, except in those matters reserved by Soccer Rhode Island (hereafter referred to as SRI or the State). CYSA shall develop and promote developmental soccer programs within and from the membership of the Association, create competitive programs from developmental teams, and maintain a referee development program.

ARTICLE III PHILOSOPHY

The philosophy of CYSA is to provide equal opportunities for all boys and girls to play the game of soccer and to have FUN. Teaching respect for players, parents and spectators, coaches and officials, as well as encouraging teamwork, safety, and sportsmanship, are the Association's ultimate goals. The Association will not discriminate against any individual on the basis of race, color, religion, age, sex, or natural origin.

ARTICLE IV AFFILIATION

The Association shall be an affiliated division of and comply with the authority of the United States Soccer Federation (hereafter referred to as USSF and/or the Federation), and/or the United States Youth Soccer Association (hereafter referred to as USYSA), and through such affiliation shall be affiliated with the respective USYSA designated state association, Soccer Rhode Island (SRI). The Federation articles of incorporation, bylaws, policies, and requirements take precedence over and supersede the governing documents and decisions of the State Association and its members to the extent applicable under state law, and the State Association and its members will abide by those articles, bylaws policies, and requirements.

ARTICLE V MEMBERSHIP

A. Non-Voting Members

1. Any properly registered youth, in good standing, shall be considered a non-voting member of the Association, shall enjoy all rights and privileges to participate in CYSA activities, and bear all obligations to abide with CYSA guidelines.

B. Voting Members

1. Any parent/guardian of a CYSA registered youth, or interested adults who have made a meaningful contribution to the Association, shall be considered a voting member of the Association and may participate in CYSA activities and Monthly Membership Meetings. Parents/guardians and/or coaches shall not vote on matters directly affecting their children and/or team.

C. Suspension

1. Any member may be suspended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors for conduct deemed inappropriate by the Board of Directors. A suspended member shall forfeit any and all fees and monies paid to the Association and shall be responsible for any fines imposed by the SRI.

D. Insurance

1. All members of the Association that participates as a player, coach, assistant coach, referee, or member of the Board of Directors must be enrolled in the SRI's Insurance Program.

ARTICLE VI TERRITORIAL LIMITS

All youths residing within the Chariho area of Charlestown, Richmond, and Hopkinton are eligible to participate within the Association. Any youth residing outside the Chariho area may register to participate in the CYSA Recreational League. A player residing outside the Chariho area may be allowed to participate on a CYSA Competitive Team if there are not enough Chariho players in the respective age group to field a team and said player, 1) registers with CYSA, or 2) provides a SRI Transfer Form and Player ID Number from the Club or Association the player is registered with.

ARTICLE VII GOVERNMENT

A. Board of Directors

ARTICLE IX PROTESTS AND APPEALS

A. Purpose

1. The purpose of the protests and appeals process to CYSA is to provide fair, swift, and just avenues of protests and appeals for all members of the Association. Protests and appeals should pertain to the CYSA Constitution, Bylaws, and other rules, regulations, and policies of CYSA. All CYSA avenues of appeals must be exhausted prior to any appeals to SRI.

B. Protest Procedure

1. The first level in the protest process is to notify a CYSA official within twenty-four (24) hours of the alleged incident. The CYSA official will answer questions and/or direct the matter to a member of the CYSA Board of Directors who shall explain CYSA rules, regulations, and policies pertaining to the protest.
2. If the Protestor disagrees with the Board Member's explanation or interpretation of CYSA rules, regulations or policies, pertaining to the protest, the Protestor may initiate an appeal.

C. Appeal Procedure

1. The first level in the appeal process is a committee. The Committee shall be appointed by the President of CYSA and shall be comprised of a Chairman and four (4) additional members of the Board of Directors. The members cannot be directly affiliated with either party. Each member shall have one vote excluding the committee Chairman. The Chairman shall cast a vote only to make or break a tie.
 - a. A written appeal, stating clearly all the facts, must be sent to the President within five (5) calendar days of the incident and/or decision the Appellant is challenging. Five (5) copies of the appeal shall be sent to the President accompanied by an appeal fee of twenty-five ($25) dollars. The appeal fee shall be refunded to the Appellant if the appeal is sustained.
 - b. The operation of a decision of an affiliated subordinate CYSA official or Board Member, from whom an appeal is taken, shall be binding upon the parties pending the decision of the Committee.
 - c. All appeals to the Committee shall be heard no later than ten (10) calendar days from the date the written appeal is sent to the President.
 - d. A written decision of the Committee shall be sent to the Appellant no later than five (5) calendar days of the hearing.

- e. Decisions of the Committee shall be binding unless the decisions are overturned by further appeals.
2. The second level of the appeal process is the Board of Directors of CYSA. Each member of the Board of Directors, except the President, shall cast one vote. The President shall cast a vote only to make or break a tie.
 - a. A written appeal, stating clearly all the facts, must be sent to the President within five (5) calendar days of the receipt of the Appeal Committee's written decision to the Appellant. Seventeen (17) copies of the appeal, and all pertinent documentation, shall be sent to the President accompanied by an appeal fee of fifty ($50) dollars. The appeal fee shall be refunded to the Appellant if the appeal is sustained.
 - b. The operation of a decision of the Appeal Committee, from which an appeal is taken, shall be binding upon the parties pending the decision of the Board of Directors.
 - c. This appeal may be heard at the next scheduled Board of Directors Meeting or if for expediency, the Appellant may request a special Board of Directors Meeting. Should the Appellant request a special Board of Directors Meeting, the President shall call a meeting to be held for the purpose of hearing the Appeal. This special meeting will be held no later than ten (10) calendar days from the date of receipt of the Appellant's notice to the President requesting a special Board of Directors Meeting.
 - d. A written decision of the Board of Directors shall be sent to the Appellant no later than five (5) calendar days of the hearing.
 - e. Decisions of the Board of Directors shall be binding unless the decisions are overturned by a higher authority. Failure to abide by decisions of the Board of Directors shall be grounds for disciplinary action by the Board of Directors.
 - f. When it is necessary for this Association to expend monies to entertain and adjudicate any of these appeals it may be determined by whom such expense shall be paid, and when so determined the sum fixed upon notice shall be due and payable.
 - g. At all levels of the appeal process, if a decision is not reached within fifteen (15) calendar days of receipt of the written appeal, the party filing the appeal may submit the appeal to the next higher level and the appeal fee submitted shall be applied at the next level.

D. Penalties

1. No CYSA member, officer, team, coach, referee, parent or player may invoke the aid of the courts of Rhode Island without first exhausting all available appeals within the Constitution and Bylaws of CYSA and SRI.
2. For violation of this rule, the offending CYSA member, officer, team, coach, referee, parent or player shall be subject to the sanctions of suspensions and fines, as deemed warranted, and shall be liable to CYSA for all expenses incurred by CYSA and its Officers in defending each court action.

E. Hearings

1. Every case, which arises under the jurisdiction of this Association, which requires a hearing, shall be tried in the presence of all parties in interest who appear. The Board of Directors or its authorized agent(s) has the power to summon anyone under its jurisdiction to appear at any meeting relative to any matter, which comes to this Association for determination or investigation.
2. All CYSA avenues of appeal(s) must be exhausted prior to any appeal(s) to SRI.

ARTICLE X FINANCE COMMITTEE

The Finance Committee will be a permanent committee consisting of the President, the Treasurer, and the Director of Fundraising. The Finance Committee's responsibilities include, but are not limited to, preparing a proposed budget for the next fiscal year (January 1st to December 31st).
